

WELCOME

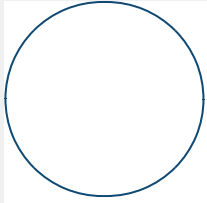

Hello I hope that you are able to find the answers to all of your questions here. You will want to read the APPOINTMENTS page to answer questions about how to make a reservation & please take the time to read the ABOUT page and the CANCELLATION/NO SHOW POLICY before your first visit. You are able to purchase your products here as well. I do not carry everything only my favorites because they are the ones I believe in and have seen work on all of my clients again and again.

If you don't mind please click the follow button on my IG feed here and drop your email in the bucket below to stay in the know.

Lets Stay In Touch!

I, fortunately, do not have time to constantly bombard you with obnoxious unimportant emails. I send out occasional notes about upcoming wine tastings, products and when I will be out of the salon. Let's stay in touch and be sure to hit the follow button on the IG feed so you can watch out for your pictures. Please tag @thegoodwifebeauty in your selfies!

There is a SERVICE MENU page for you to view if you have questions about what to expect and how much the services are. Services are organized into 5 categories haircuts, cuts and colors, hairstyling and treatments, hair color and spa.
